RE: Caregiver Certification Expiration Date

To all Caregiver providers,

In regard to the COVID-19 crisis and the worry of the spread throughout the Communities the following directive is hereby issued. We understand that many Caregiver providers has expressed concern in regards to their Caregiver Certifications that has expired or shall be expiring soon.

Therefore, all Caregiver Certifications will be extended until October 1, 2020. Please provide this letter for any request of certification during this time; in the case, yours has expired. Depending on the future of this crisis, additional directives may follow. We will also be issuing a policy to allow all instructors to conduct classes online, more information in regards to this will be coming soon.

If you have any questions or concerns please contact our Fire Safety and Life Safety Educator Amanda Ghorley at aghorley@oci.ga.gov or (470) 725-5722.

Sincerely,

Mark Revenew
