For Your Information

January 2014

Happy New Year!

State Fire Marshal – The Public Hearing for written and oral comments took place in December. Everything seems to be on target for approval by the Department. It is anticipated that the final version of the Modified Safety Fire Regulations will be signed by the commissioner on Jan. 7 with an effective date 20 days later, most likely the week of Jan 27-31. To review the final Modified Safety Fire Regulations, please visit our web site at www.gasla.org under the Members Only section. GSLA's written response is also on our web site.

2014 Dues Investment is due during January. Invoices have gone out. Please give us a call if you have any questions or need to discuss payment.

HCFR Licensed Residential Profile form: Requirement for ALC and PCH – The Health Care Facility Regulation (HCFR) Division has not yet finalized the form nor posted it on the state's web site, so assisted living communities (ALCs) and personal care homes (PCHs) are not required to complete the form yet. As soon as we have more information we will pass it along and add it to the GSLA web site as well.

February Luncheon – Speaker to be announced. Location is Maggiano's Little Italy in Buckhead, 3368 Peachtree Rd NE, Atlanta, GA 30326. Announcements will go out late January/early February.

Advocacy Day 2014 – We have scheduled Wednesday, Feb. 26, as the day we'll meet at the State Capitol to talk about the senior living industry with our senators and representatives. Please put this on your calendar – we need for you to join us!
